Manaaki New Zealand Short Term Training Scholarships

Good Governance - Online

ASEAN 2026

Overview

The New Zealand Government's Manaaki New Zealand Scholarship Programme is pleased to offer an online Good Governance course for ASEAN scholars, supported by the New Zealand International Development Cooperation Programme.

The Good Governance Course is designed to strengthen the knowledge and skills of ASEAN government officials in building inclusive, transparent, and resilient governance systems. Covering topics from human rights and anti-corruption to climate policy and digital governance, the course draws on regional case studies and New Zealand expertise to strengthen public sector leadership and sustainable development.

This is an intensive short course designed for participants from eligible countries in the ASEAN region who are currently in middle and senior management positions and currently working in relevant sectors.

The online course is run part time over a five-week period and will be run by the University of Auckland's Public Policy Institute. The expectation would be that scholars are available to complete the entire learning programme over the five weeks online.

While this course does not constitute a formal tertiary qualification it will provide scholars with unique insights into New Zealand approaches and best practice in each sectoral study area.

On completion each scholar will be awarded a completion certificate from the Manaaki New Zealand Scholarships Programme.

When?

The Good Governance course timeline is as follows:

Applications Open	Monday 1 December 2025
Applications Close	Sunday 25 January 2026
Course Start Date	Wednesday 1 April 2026
Course Finish Date	Thursday 30 April 2026

This course will be delivered online on a part-time basis.

An Orientation will be held by the Wellington Uni-Professional Scholarships Team on the Thursday prior to course start date to provide applicants with further detail on their scholarship and allowances.

The University of Auckland will hold their Orientation with scholars on the first day of the course.

Who should attend?

This course is designed for professionals currently in middle or senior management positions (with at least 5 years relevant work experience) working in the sector.

Participants should have basic level computer literacy and numeracy skills and Intermediate level English language proficiency.

To be eligible for a Manaaki New Zealand Scholarship, all the following statements must be true:

- From the date my application is submitted, I will have lived in my country of citizenship for the last two years or more.
- Exception for diplomatic corps and their family: A member of the diplomatic corps or a dependant of a member of the diplomatic corps, living outside their own country, can apply for a Scholarship.
- I am not a citizen or permanent resident of any of the following countries: New Zealand, Australia, Bahrain, Canada, any European Union country, Iceland, Israel, Japan, Kuwait, Norway, Oman, Qatar, Russia, Saudi Arabia, South Korea, Switzerland, the United Arab Emirates, the United Kingdom, or the United States of America.
 - Exceptions: People from the following countries and territories are eligible to apply: Timor-Leste-Portuguese dual citizens
- I will be at least 18 years old at the time I start the scholarship.
- I am not currently serving in the military.
- Within the last five years, I have not had a New Zealand Scholarship terminated.

Applicants must also acknowledge and agree that:

- They have received endorsement from their employer to attend this training programme.
- They expect to meet the academic entry requirements (including English language requirements) for their planned training programme.

Delivery & Programme Management

The course will be managed and supported by Professor Jennifer Curtin, Director of the Public Policy Institute, oversees all aspects of the programme, is part of the introductory and completion sessions, and contributes to the majority of the modules in this course. She is supported by policy professionals and scholars from across the University of Auckland who have expertise in law, policy, digital technologies, and public sector practices.

Juanita Rojas is the Course Coordinator, and is supported in this role by Dr Suzanne Woodward and Dr Gay Francisco. Together they manage the pre-course induction process, access to our learning management system, coordinate pastoral care throughout each course, maintain connections with scholars and share the management of each live online session.

The Public Policy Institute appoints scholar success advisors who have knowledge of the regions from which the scholars are drawn. This is done on a course-by-course basis, to provide both intellectual and culturally sensitive care and support. The Scholar Success Adviser for this course will be Dr Gay Francisco who will run two drop-in sessions online each week and will contribute to break-out room activities during each session.

Application

Applicants can apply via an online application form accessed through the Manaaki TSTTS website.
